

EVERYONE IS READING:

The Lady in Gold

Join your friends and neighbors in reading and discussing
The Lady in Gold
by Anne-Marie O'Connor

"...many-faceted, intensely affecting, and profoundly revelatory tale"
Booklist Starred Review

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

ALL EVENTS: MAYER ROOM - HOWE LIBRARY

Friday, September 21 3:30 p.m.

Great Music of the Swing Era

Hanover High School's Jazz Band, led by conductor Ian Gollub, will entertain us with a rousing selection of tunes from the swing era.

Sunday, September 23 1:00 - 4:00 p.m.

Go for the Gold - A Mini-Art Workshop

Join artist Tracy Smith and create miniature pieces of artwork inspired by Gustav Klimt. Ages 16 and up.
Space is limited-registration is required.

Thursday, October 4 6:00

Book Discussion: The Lady in Gold

Cosponsored with The Hood Museum of Art

A group review of the book will be enhanced by a discussion of the ongoing issues of provenance in the art world. Co-led by Katherine Hart, Senior Collections Curator and Barbara C. and Harvey P. Hood 1918 Curator of Academic Programming, Hood Museum of Art, and Megan Coleman, PR and Outreach Librarian, Howe Library. Registration is required through the Hood Museum of Art's events calendar.

Tuesday, October 9 Noon

BLT Book Discussion

The Lady in Gold

Join us for an informal book discussion of this year's Everyone is Reading title.

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

Wednesday, October 17 7:00p.m.

Are You Prepared?

First Steps in Estate Planning

The legal battle surrounding the Klimt paintings raised issues of what the wills intended for the Klimt paintings versus what the law would allow. Join us for a panel featuring local experts in estate planning to learn how to get started, what you should be thinking about, and how you can ensure that your wishes are honored after your death. Features Sally Boyle, Sally J Boyle Wealth Planning; Renee Harvey, Caldwell Law; and John O'Dowd, Ledyard Bank.

Sunday, October 21 3:00 p.m.

Degenerate Art, Nazi Ideology, and the Work of Gustav Klimt

A Lecture by Phyllis Deutsch

Dr. Deutsch will discuss some of the paintings and murals of Gustav Klimt within the context of modern art, a category of artistic expression that Hitler and the Nazis proclaimed "degenerate." She will focus on how Nazis defined "degenerate art" and the importance of such cultural claims to Nazi ideology. She will also talk about how Klimt's work, which the Nazis considered "degenerate art" in terms of style and subject matter, nonetheless reinforced some of the gendered assumptions of fascism.

Monday, October 22 3:00 p.m.

Finding Your Roots:

Getting Started with Genealogy

Join Erin M. Apostolos, The Genealogy Librarian, for an introductory work shop on how to get started discovering your family roots. You'll learn where to look, how to keep track of your research, and how to do it without investing a lot of money.

Tuesday, October 30 7:00 p.m.

Film Screening: Woman in Gold

Screening of Woman in Gold (2015), which is based on the legal battle Adele Bloch-Bauer's niece Maria Altmann undertook to recover The Lady in Gold painting. Stars Helen Mirren as Maria Altmann and Ryan Reynolds as Randol Schoenberg, Maria's legal counsel.

Howe Library
13 South Street Hanover, NH
643-4120
www.howelibrary.org
Funded by The Howe Library Corporation.

