SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

Tuesday, September 13 Noon

BLT Book Discussion

The Soul of an Octopus

Join us for a book discussion of this year's Everyone is Reading title.

Tuesday, September 20 7:00 p.m.

Saving New Hampshire Fisheries

Join us for a screening and discussion of the Windows to the Wild/NHPTV documentary.

For centuries, New England's ocean waters sustained life, built an economy, and created an iconic culture. Saving New England Fisheries shows how lessons from the past and innovative thinking today can help create a sustainable future for our fisheries. Host Will Lange travels the coasts of Maine, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, and Newfoundland to meet fishermen, government officials and other fishery experts who are deeply involved in developing a sustainable plan for New England's fisheries.

Sunday, September 25 2:00 - 4:00 p.m.

Howe 2.0 Create an Octopus

In September, Howe 2.0 goes under the sea! Craft your own octopus to help us decorate the library or to bring home.

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

Thursday, September 29 7:00 p.m.

Evening Book Discussion

The Soul of an Octopus

Join us for a book discussion of this year's Everyone is Reading title.

Saturday, October 1 2:00 p.m.

The Amazing Octopus

For Ages 5 - 10

Did you know that octopuses are masters of camouflage, able to change their color, shape, and texture in the blink of an eye? They are also amazingly intelligent, able to use tools and solve a variety of problems. Join UNH SeaTrek to learn about octopuses through a short presentation and hands-on activities.

Wednesday, October 5 7:00 p.m.

Sip and Paint with Susannah Colby

Escape to the ocean, if only in your mind, and let your inner artist out while eating snacks and drinking mocktails. Local artist Susannah Colby will help us create a beach-inspired painting. This event is free and space is limited to 20 participants.

Please register by contacting the Information Desk starting September 21.
